

Conflict of Interest Policy

(Last updated: July 23, 2013)

For all Officers, Directors, Staff Members, Chaplains (including those designated as “full time”, “part-time” or “volunteer”), FMM Representatives and their immediate family members:

No member of the Forgotten Man Ministries shall derive any personal profit or financial gain directly or indirectly by reason of his or her participation with the Forgotten Man Ministries. Each individual shall disclose to the Forgotten Man Ministries Board of Directors any personal interest which he or she may have in any matter involving the Forgotten Man Ministries and shall refrain from participation in any activity for which they have a special interest.

Adopted by the Forgotten Man Ministries Board of Directors on June 14, 2010.
